Scott,
Having conferred with David and having reviewed Judge Cohen's standing order (see section I.K, which we don't understand your proposal to us makes any effort to satisfy), judges in the Northern District of Georgia rarely permit argument and we don't see anything about this motion that suggests the court should deviate from its customary practice.

Gentlemen:

Can one of you advise regarding the below? The other defendants have indicated that they do not object to oral argument.

Thanks,

Scott
